Bangarra Dance Theatre outing

We had a very successful theatre party in June to see Lore

Thirty of us enjoyed the imaginative and inspiring performance with a message of hope and resilience.

Sheok was choreographed by Frances Ring. “The last of the old growth scar trees has fallen. Its keeper mourns its loss and the people must now adapt to a new way of life.”

I.B.I.S , choreographed by Steve Francis, was based on many of the daily rhythms of Murray Island in the Torres Strait.

After the performance there was the opportunity to stay for refreshments and conversation at a nearby café.

We enjoyed the opportunity to go together to see a stimulating dance performance while supporting both Bangarra and the Foundation.

There are plans to go again next year and make this an annual event.

Dance Spot

Dance Spot gives an opportunity to dancers of faith around Sydney to come together to share their dances. This year it was held in March at Annandale Creative Arts Centre. It was initiated two years ago by the Foundation and organized by the Christian Dance Fellowship and the Uniting church.
