High Tea and Awards

Our High Tea was a great success raising our largest amount of money so far. Thank you to all you were there and gave generously.

In this newsletter we announce the Flame and Project Awards and announce a new Award that will be given next year - the Peter Jones Youth Leadership Award.

You will also see photos of the High Tea.

2017 Flame Awards

The Flame Awards are given for excellence in dance ministry and are nominated by members of ICDF/CDFs. This year they were awarded to:

Lucinda Coleman from Perth, Australia, has contributed to dance ministry by her teaching, choreography, dance and creative initiatives.

Lucinda taught dance in a Christian context at Tabor College, Adelaide, before moving to Perth where she formed Remnant Dance and started her Ph D.

Shelagh Innes moved from Britain to South Africa where she held leadership positions within the Christian Dance Fellowship of South Africa. Shelagh then moved to Qatar where she set up a gym academy and was elected onto the

The initial donation to start the Foundation was given by members at the International conference in Scotland 2009

The Foundation gives support by

- Annual Flame Awards recognising excellence in dance ministry
- Raising money for dance ministry projects on the basis of need and merit
- Awarding Paula Douthett scholarships for applicants to the ICDF Diploma in Dance Ministry on ICDF Steering Committee.

Shelagh has contributed through her leadership, initiative and fund-raising. Shelagh is in the process of moving back to England and all her photos were packed, but see what we were able to put together on <https://youtu.be/Y-HQCduS06Y> the basis of both need and merit.

2017 Project Awards

Abiodun Babalola is a dance teacher in Akure in western Nigeria. He co-ordinates Praise Dance Academy which offers several styles of dance and also teaches in schools preparing the children for events. They also teach church dance groups.

He has recently been appointed ICDF Country Representative for Nigeria and the award will help with finance so he can attend the CDF conference in South Africa to meet other leaders and see how a CDF functions. See his presentation on <https://youtu.be/biep3mMVxbc>

Celeste Ollivierre-James is on the ICDF Steering Committee and is the Connector for the Caribbean. Her award will help her travel to Cuba to visit the ICDF Country Representative, Ailyn Rodriguez Isaac, for mentoring and encouragement. See her presentation on <https://youtu.be/hQHS9EvuLg0>
